

CRIME SCENE

Lyrics written by: Edwin Fokkema (FOKK_it)

Hm, Oeh, Oeh, Oeh

There you go again
This time not looking over your shoulder
Hm
Not knowing when
Your love for me got colder
Hm
The last few months our house felt empty
The soul of our home gone
You acting on your own, so selfishly
Seeing you walk away, into dawn

I did see this coming
Love slipping away
In my head it was humming
That you didn't wanna to stay

How could you betrayed me like that
Losing the love we once had
Leaving me, so bad, so sad
Our love now gone and dead
You turn away from this crime scene
Left me behind, no longer a threat
In your head
(Your Head)

When we met, you said I was forever
yours
Spending our lifetime together
When did our path take an other course
For the worst, not for the better
You didn't want to fix the broken pieces
But took the easy way out
Not knowing why it may ease ya
When you where screaming so loud

Hm, Hm, Hm, Hm, Ah, Ah, Hm, Ah, Ah

I did see this coming
Love slipping away
In my head it was humming
That you didn't wanna stay

How could you betrayed me like that
Losing the love we once had
Leaving me, so bad, so sad
You turn away from this crime scene
Left me behind, no longer a threat
In your head
(Your Head)

You think you're better of alone
But I know better
The best part of your life was our home
Because we were together

So
How could you betrayed me like that
Losing the love we once had
Leaving me, so sad, so bad
In your head
In your Head
In your head
(It hurts so bad)
(so bad)
