

KARMA BitCH!

Lyrics written by: Edwin Fokkema (FOKK_it)

Uh, Uh

She's a mystery to all
She knows what she wants
Can make you smile or fall
She can do it all at once
Pick you up when you're small
No matter if your old or young

She can also hunt you down
She doesn't care day or night
In fact she's always around
You're always in her sight
Even when your lost
You will be found

She's right here
Always on the look out
So Watch your back dear
And be aware about
That she isn't a witch
But
She's Karma Bitch!

You don't have to be scared
If your nice to me and kind
Give me love and just share
Let it all out and make it shine
And be aware
Of what's lurking from behind

Be always good to others
And truthful to yourself
Then she will not be bothered
But is only here to help
Like a loving mother
From heaven not from hell

She's right here
Always on the look out
So Watch your back dear
And be aware about
But
She's Karma Bitch!

So you live your life
Like a narcissist
I can see it in your eyes
Biting your pump up lips
You think you rule this world
And only revolves around you
Pumping up hateful words
Looking absurd, like a fool
She will come for you
You do know it's true
Watch your back and ass too
Because It's Karma Bitch,
Do you get the clue
Just move your shit

She's right here
And be aware about
But
She's Karma Bitch!
