

FOXHOLE

Lyrics written by: Edwin Fokkema (FOKK_it)

Here I am alone at the top
This huge mountain I've climb
No one to hold me back, or stop
Knowing now, I will do just fine

It took a while for me to get here
Now feeling finally strong, brave
Joy, happiness creating a lost tear
My first time, truly feeling safe

Time to take my total control
No longer hiding in the shadow
Crawling out of my own foxhole
No longer feeling beaten and hollow

I'm proud of what I've become Strong and so much love to give
Nothing more to hide from Men doing wrong, I need to forgive

They were also scared in their lives
Themselves broken, unsure
Carved in their minds by blunt knives
There souls no longer being pure

Time to take my total control
No longer hiding in the shadow
Crawling out of my own foxhole
No longer feeling beaten and hollow

Oeh

I don't blame you any longer
For making my life so hard
It only made me much stronger
No longer afraid of the dark

I'll hope everyone can see the light
So bright here on this mountain
Realising, you don't have to fight
Renewed, jumped into the youth fountain

Time to take my total control
No longer hiding in the shadow
Crawling out of my own foxhole
No longer feeling beaten and hollow

Goodbye foxhole
Finally whole with my soul
My soul

Time to take my total control
No longer hiding in the shadow
Crawling out of my own foxhole
No longer feeling beaten and hollow
