

BRICKED HEART

Lyrics written by: Edwin Fokkema (FOKK_it)

You touched my body and mind
Always saying the right words
Trying to act normal and kind
What was coming was the worst
Worst

Fooling me with those big eyes
Teaching me your cravings
Like a devil's deal in disguise
Who's gonna save me

Oh
You bricked up my heart
Oh

Yeah

You!
You caused me to switch of
Turning my world black
The cause of my bricked heart
No way to return
No going back
Leaving you is so hard
Because
Your dark side is the best part
The best part

Just teach me everything
I want to experience it all
Let me free, just let me swing
In the dark let me crawl

I know you like to watch
Everything I experience
You think you're such a god
Knowing all of my sins

Uhm
Hm

You!
You caused me to switch of
Turning my world black
The cause of my bricked heart
No way to return
No going back
Leaving you is so hard
Because
The best part

You think I'm fragile
But I'm already broken
The hurt, just makes me smile
A smile that already has been stolen

Let me explore
While I sit on all four
On this hard cold floor
Just craving for more

Oh, oh, oh
Ooh
Oh, oh, oh
You bricked up my heart
I want the best part
This part
Ah
